The article on the first page, "A Living Corpse," is a true story of the pains and expense of a life insurance company.

to protect itself and the public from an infamous swindle. The article is a warning to the public to be careful of life insurance companies.

The Governor has nominated H. O. Stanley, Esq., of Dixfield, for Fish Commissioner.

Should this nomination be confirmed by the Council it will effect the removal of Everett Smith, Esq., one of the present commissioners. The nomination is a surprise.

Last night two men applied at the station house for shelter, each of whom had been twenty dollars and who had no other means of support.

They were both good looking men, and evidently wanted to save their money. One was on his way to Calais and the other was on his way to Bangor.

RAILROAD EXTENSION. The project of the extension of the Sandy River narrow-gauge railroad from Farmington to the Kennebec is in a hopeful state.

A surveyor has been employed to map out the probable route. An endeavor will be made to raise a portion of the necessary money in Boston. It is estimated that the cost will be about $100,000.

There doesn't appear to be quite so lively an interest in the welfare of ex-Governor Garcelon among the Democrats as there was last September, just after the Maine election.

When Mr. Moody was city missionary in Chicago, he preached in the streets of a low neighborhood, where he was stone and looked. He went to the Bishop of the Illinois Church to tell him about it. He explained the situation to the Bishop, and the Bishop was not at home.

Moody thought there must be something wrong about it, and so the next time he went he had himself down on the steps of the outside of the house. After about fifteen minutes he had no more to say, and he went back to the street.

Moody was a very good man, and he was a very good preacher. He was a very good man, and he was a very good preacher. He was a very good man, and he was a very good preacher.

AN INHERITANCE.

A few years ago Timothy O'Neil and his brother, Timothy O'Neil, arrived in this country from Ireland. They were very poor, and they were very hungry.
